- » The Policies for CAMP IMPACT have been established for the protective benefits of every person in attendance. In order to protect the right of every person in attendance, and to enjoy a wholesome camp atmosphere, all persons are expected to observe habits of personal courtesy and Christian conduct. In order to have a safe, fun, life-changing camp, with a Christian environment, Impact Oklahoma presents the following policies for camp
- » Anyone who is 18 and over, and who is staying the night must have a background check.
- » ALL Guests must register with camp staff upon arrival and sign out upon departure. No guest shall be allowed to spend the night without a camp form filled out, background check, camp executive staff approval, and a small fee ($45/night).
- » No guests are allowed in the dorm unless a background check has been performed.
- » Non-staying guests are welcome to visit, but must depart the campgrounds after the late-night activities and "in dorm" is announced.
- » Vehicles are to be parked in designated area and not to be revisited unless authorized by camp staff.
- » No one should leave the campground without permission from one of the camp executives. Camp staff vehicles are to be used by camp staff only, and no camper is to be on, or in, camp staff vehicles except in case of emergency.
- » No person shall take a camper from the campgrounds except in case of emergency (authorized camp staff only).
- » Willful destruction of personal or camp property will not be tolerated. The party responsible for the damage must pay any damages incurred before leaving camp.
- » No swapping or changing of dorms without executive staff permission. Roll call will be taken nightly by our camp executive staff, and throughout the day by monitors.
- » All campers/monitors medications must be turned in to the camp nurse upon arrival to camp. For the safety of all who attend, volunteer, and work at camp all previous medical conditions and medications taken MUST BE RECORDED on camp forms. All sickness should be reported to the camp nurse.
- » All persons who attend camp will be subject to a head lice examination. Any person who is found to have head lice must be treated at their expense before reporting to the dorm area.
- » RESPECT is to be given to camp staff as well as to each other at all times.
- » The daily schedule must be followed. Attendance is required at services, classes, and activities.
- » Boys and girls are not allowed in the dorm area of the opposite sex. Violation of this rule will result in immediate action of the camp executive staff for review and may result in dismissal from camp without refund of camp fees. Enter only the dorm that you have been assigned.
- » All campers and camp staff must be dressed in compliance with the camp dress code before exiting the dorm:
- » Shorts may be worn at all activities during camp. Clothing MUST cover back, sides, and navel at all times. Modest tank tops are allowed during activities. No apparel displaying or promoting secular groups, tobacco, alcohol, or inappropriate language.
- » Evening services: All persons must wear modest attire; modest shorts are permitted.
- » Modest skirt/dress must be to your longest fingertip all the way around.
- » All shorts must be to your longest fingertip in the front.
- » Modest tank tops must be three finger widths on shoulder.
- » Modesty will be expected inside the dorms as well as outside the dorms.
- » Jewelry is not recommended during sporting activities.
- » Campers are allowed to have cell phones during times defined by the Impact Team. It is the sole responsibility of each camper to keep up with and secure their phone. Absolutely NO pictures or videos are to be taken inside the dorms. Other electronic devices are not permitted.
- » PRANKS- will not be tolerated.
- » PDA (public display of affection) will not be tolerated during camp. Stay in lighted areas of the campgrounds.
- » SWIMMING - Boys & girls will have separate swimming times. All persons must wear shorts and shirts (non-white) for walking to and from the swimming pool. -No vulgar or profane language. No alcohol, tobacco, or drugs. No vapes or electronic cigarettes. No knives or firearms. No fireworks.
- » Grounds and dorm must be kept clean.
- » Camp staff will inspect dorms before you are allowed to depart from the campgrounds.
- » Any condition that may arise that is not covered by these policies shall be handled at the discretion of the Camp Executive Staff for a final decision. Camp Executive Staff includes: Camp Director's, Assist. Camp Directors, and YM executives.
